

Thank you for your inquiry about our Private Events.

We invite groups to book private classes for corporate events, birthday parties, bridal showers, or family reunions. Our cooking parties are private events where you reserve the kitchen for a group of up to 50, and we'll customize a hands-on, interactive class just for you. Our culinary teambuilding classes are particularly popular, providing a fun and effective opportunity for colleagues to work together in a creative way and build camaraderie.

While classes generally run three-hours and feature four courses, we will custom tailor to your needs, and can do an abbreviated, all-day or multi-day event for your group. We'll also customize the menu—from simple to more complex—and we will happily put together a wine tasting experience to complement your menu.

Located in the heart of the Peninsula, HomeChef Cooking School showcases farm-fresh ingredients from Our local growers and ingredients from the finest local purveyors paired with world class wines and brews from local wineries & breweries. All classes are led by a professionally trained chef, and culminate with students sitting down together to enjoy the meal they've just prepared.

The cost for a 3-hour/3-course private event is $1,500 for 1-12 guests and $95 for each additional guest up to 50. The cost for a 4-hour/4-course private event is $1,800 for 1-12 guests and $95 for each additional guest up to 50. This includes exclusive use of the kitchen for a private hands-on cooking class with a customized menu. A service fee of 18% will be added to groups of 8 or more to be shared among the staff. For groups less than 8, gratuity is appreciated. (Pricing effective Jan 1, 2016)

Wine is not included in these fees, however we have a wonderful wine list at retail prices (no mark-up). You are also welcome to bring your own wine at a corkage fee of $10 per bottle. We carry local beers and an assortment of non-alcoholic beverages.
