

Thank you for your inquiry about our Culinary Team Building Events. Our culinary teambuilding classes are particularly popular, providing a fun and effective opportunity for colleagues to work together in a creative way and build camaraderie away from, the office.

While classes generally run three hours and feature four courses, we will custom tailor to your needs, and can do an abbreviated, all day or multi day event for your group. We'll also customize the menu from simple to more complex.

Located in the heart of the Peninsula, HomeChef Cooking School showcases farm fresh ingredients from our local growers and ingredients from the finest local purveyors paired with world class wines and brews from local wineries & breweries. All classes are led by a professionally trained chef, and culminate with students sitting down together to enjoy the meal they've just prepared.
